

Kapráluv mlýn

scout environmental education centre

I think you might be interested in this: Kapraluv mlyn is a Scout Environmental Education Centre in the Moravian karst. Although it is surrounded by wonderful nature, rocks and caves, it is just 20 minutes by bus to the downtown of Brno, 2nd largest city in the Czech Republic.

The centre has got cool eco-friendly operation and is a place where educational programmes for schools and NGOs are taking place.

We are currently offering a volunteer placement for the EUROPEAN VOLUNTARY SERVICE. 6 and 12 month service with optimal start in June 2013.

Accommodation, catering, pocket money and transport costs will be provided to the successful applicant.

You will also get chance to deepen your language skills in Czech and English. However, in-field educational programme and volunteer work in the international team will be the core of your service.

The volunteer experience consists of help daily operation of Kapráluv mlýn including environmental education programmes; local conservation work and personal development programme. You would not only have a chance to see interesting environmental projects and meet with their leaders but you can make your own project!
